Mill Town Music Hall Celebrates its 100th Show by Hosting Grammy-Award Winner Diamond Rio

Venue to celebrate milestone performance on October 6

BREMEN, GA. (August 15, 2016) – Mill Town Music Hall is pleased to announce that Grammy-Award Winning Diamond Rio will perform on Thursday, October 6 at 7:30 pm EST for the venue's 100th show. Diamond Rio will sing songs from their newest album, I Made It, along with top hits Meet in the Middle and One More Day. Opening the concert will be returning singer and songwriter, Brent Rupard. Mill Town Music Hall focuses on wholesome, family-friendly music and events and is located conveniently off I-20 in Bremen (1031 Alabama Avenue).

"I am so proud and humbled that Mill Town Music Hall is hosting its 100th performance," said Randall Redding, co-Founder of Mill Town Music Hall. "It seems fitting that the modern symbol for 100 is the diamond and we are hosting Diamond Rio. This event is really a community celebration, and we look forward to announcing several fun 100th Show activities as the date gets closer."

Founded in 1982, Diamond Rio began as a bluegrass music band at a Nashville theme park. The band is best known for their eclectic hybrid of modern country, traditional bluegrass and a hint of rock & roll. Their self-titled album became a platinum-selling smash. The lead single, Meet in the Middle, topped the charts, making them the first country group to have a debut single hit No. 1 on the Billboard Hot Country Songs chart. In 2011, they received their first Grammy for Best Southern Country or Bluegrass Gospel Album. The band released a concert album in 2014, and in 2015 released I Made It, their first studio album in six years. Diamond Rio has recorded nine studio albums, four Greatest Hits compilations, and a Christmas album. They have also received four CMA Group of the Year awards and two Top Vocal Group awards from the Academy of Country Music.
