M&W Café Opens Inside Mill Town Music Hall

Bremen's newest private event facility is perfect for tours and bus groups

BREMEN, Ga. (Oct. 25, 2016) – Mill Town Music Hall is pleased to announce the recent opening of its new restaurant, M&W Café. Currently, the restaurant is operating solely as a private event facility that serves as a perfect place for pre-concert rentals, as well as bus tours traveling through the area. M&W Café is conveniently located off I-20 in Bremen (1031 Alabama Avenue).

“Our onsite commercial kitchen lends itself to serving more than the band backstage,” said Steve Bennett, Mill Town Music Hall’s General Manager. “This new space is perfect for groups prior to a concert, holiday parties and other private events. Plus, our private parking lot has plenty of space to accommodate large groups and tour buses.”

The M&W Café accommodates 64 guests and was created by Mill Town Music Hall founders, Randall and Tena Redding. This beautiful room is in memory of the historic landmark by the same name owned by the Redding family that faithfully served home cooked meals to the mill workers who made Bremen the Clothing Center of the South. Mill Town Music Hall Executive Chef Josh McCorsley will oversee the venue’s menu and staffing.
