Country Music Legend John Anderson Will Be 'Swingin' into Mill Town Music Hall

Award-winning musician will sing from almost four decades of hits on February 20

BREMEN, Ga. (Jan. 11, 2016) – Mill Town Music Hall is proud to host John Anderson, one of the most recognizable voices in the history of country music on Saturday, Feb. 20 at 7:30 p.m. EST. At a young age, Anderson was exposed to rock and traditional country music; however, when his time came, he elected to pursue what has become a successful country music dream. Rising Nashville singer-songwriter Logan Brill will open for Anderson. Mill Town Music Hall focuses on wholesome, family-friendly music and events and is located conveniently off I-20 in Bremen (1031 Alabama Avenue).

Anderson's country music career started when he moved to Nashville in 1972. In 1980, he rolled out his first major hit single, "I'm Just An Old Chunk of Coal (But I'm Gonna Be A Diamond Someday)." Several years later, Anderson's song "Swingin'" from his fourth album climbed the charts to Number 1 on the country and crossed over to the Billboard Hot 100. This hit earned him a CMA Horizon Award. Over the next years, he produced numerous hit songs, several of which he wrote, including "Seminole Wind" and "Straight Tequila Night." His latest album "Goldmine," consists of 13 songs, 12 of which he either wrote or co-wrote. In 2014, he was honored to be inducted to the Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame.

Tickets for Anderson are $40 for "premium reserved" and $35 for "reserved" in advance. Fans are encouraged to purchase tickets through Ticket Alternative at 1-877-725-8849, online at the Mill Town Music Hall website (www.MillTownMusicHall.com) or at the Mill Town Music Hall box office.
