Award-Winning Songwriters and Singers T. Graham Brown and Jimmy Fortune to take Mill Town Music Hall Stage

Local musician who appeared on The Voice to perform on June 18th

BREMEN, Ga. (May 20, 2016) – CMA Award winner and Grammy nominee T. Graham Brown and Statler Brothers' legendary singer and songwriter Jimmy Fortune will both appear on the Mill Town stage on Saturday, June 18 at 7:30pm. Concert goers will be entertained with the vocalists' original hits from the past four decades, as well as from Brown's newest Grammy nominated album, Forever Changed, and Fortune's first solo top ten record on the Billboard Country Albums Chart, Hits and Hymns. Mill Town Music Hall focuses on wholesome, family-friendly music and events and is located conveniently off I-20 in Bremen (1031 Alabama Avenue).

Opening the concert will be country singer Caleb Hutchinson, who won the local Teen Idol contest and recently appeared on NBC's singing competition show, The Voice.

A native to Georgia, Brown began his music career at the University of Georgia where he was exposed to multiple genres of music. He quickly found work singing song demos and commercial jingles for major corporations including McDonald's, Disneyland and was the singing narrator for Taco Bell's 'Run for the Border' television spots. Brown's title track I Wish That I Could Hurt That Way Again went to Top Ten and Hell or High Water and Don't Go to Strangers made it to Number 1 on the charts.

Fortune began his career in 1982 with the Statler Brothers. He wrote the group's second Number One hit, Elizabeth, a song he later had the opportunity to perform to Elizabeth Taylor at one of her birthday celebrations. He proceeded with two more Number One hits, My Only Love and Too Much On My Heart, and has had the rare opportunity to perform twice at the White House. Fortune started a solo career after the band's retirement in 2002. The Statler Brothers were inducted into the Gospel Music Association Hall of Fame in 2007 and the Country Music Association Hall of Fame in 2008.
