Grammy-Nominated Southern Gospel Trio The Booth Brothers and The Diplomats Quartet to Perform at Mill Town Music Hall

The popular gospel bands will sing from the heart on Sat., July 22

BREMEN, Ga. (July 5, 2017) – Recognized as a trio, with a strong faith and a desire to create music that touches the soul, The Booth Brothers will take the Mill Town Music Hall stage on Saturday, July 22 at 7:30 pm EST. Opening the show will be the popular homegrown group, The Diplomats Quartet. For The Booth Brothers, fulfilling their calling includes singing and ministering to an audience. Mill Town Music Hall focuses on family-friendly music and events and is located conveniently off I-20 in Bremen (1031 Alabama Avenue).

After winning countless awards and producing multiple albums, The Booth Brothers have created a tradition of musical excellence. The group formed in the 1990's with brothers Ronnie and Michael along with their father Ron Booth Sr. After Ron Sr. retired, several singers have filled the third part of the trio, and Paul Lancaster now fills that role extremely well. Among their countless awards include, Album of the Year, Song of the Year, Male Group of the Year and Trio of the Year, from organizations such as Southern Gospel Music Awards and National Quartet Convention.

Singing News recognizes The Diplomats Quartet as one of the top mixed Southern Gospel groups. The group's style has been called upbeat and energetic. Jimmy and Rita Pearson lead The Diplomats Quartet and through the years, great talent which includes their son, lead male vocalist and bandleader, Corey Pearson has joined this couple to comprise a very successful touring group. Others who are part of the group include Alex Utech, lead bass vocals, Jordan Hamby on guitar, mandolin and banjo and Daniel Maddox on drums
