'America's Funniest Man' James Gregory to Perform at Mill Town Music Hall Comedian's show on May 12 will contain no vulgarity

BREMEN, Ga. (March 10, 2016) – Self proclaimed 'America's Funniest Man' James Gregory will perform his clean humor at Mill Town Music Hall on Thursday, May 12 at 7:30 p.m. EST. For more than two decades, Gregory has entertained audiences in-person, on tour, and on hundreds of radio stations and television appearances. Mill Town Music Hall focuses on wholesome, family-friendly music and events and is located conveniently off I-20 in Bremen (1031 Alabama Avenue).

Gregory was born in Lithonia, Ga. and worked as a salesperson until he was 36 years old, when he first began introducing performers at The Punch Line comedy club in Atlanta. His first feature act at the Punch Line was February 17, 1982. He does not "tip-toe" through life as if he's walking on broken glass or egg shells and his style is evident on stage. Much of his humor is centered on brilliant observations of crazy relatives and people obsessed with the slightest change in weather conditions. His show turns the clock back to a time when life was simpler; to a better time, before the death of common sense; a time when people sat on the front porch and actually talked to each other without a cell phone in their ear. Some of his most notable works include an album and a book titled It Could Be A Law, I Don't Know and a video called Grease, Gravy & John Wayne's Momma. His style consists of storytelling and contains no vulgarity.

Tickets for the James Gregory performance are $35 for "premium reserved" and $30 for "reserved" in advance. Fans are encouraged to purchase tickets through Ticket Alternative at 1-877-725-8849, online at the Mill Town Music Hall website (www.MillTownMusicHall.com) or at the Mill Town Music Hall box office.
