Highly Acclaimed Songwriters and Singers T. Graham Brown and Jimmy Fortune Return to Mill Town Music Hall Stage

Caleb Hutchinson recent winner of Georgia Country Teen Talent Search will open on Sept. 14

BREMEN, Ga. (August 14, 2017) – Mill Town Music Hall is proud to welcome back CMA Award winner and GRAMMY nominee T. Graham Brown and Statler Brothers' legendary singer and songwriter Jimmy Fortune on Thursday, September 14 at 7:30pm EST. Local musician Caleb Hutchinson, who recently won the Georgia Teen Talent Search, will open the show with his soulful country voice. Mill Town Music Hall focuses on family-friendly music and events and is located conveniently off I-20 in Bremen (1031 Alabama Avenue).

A native to Georgia, Brown began his music career at the University of Georgia where he was exposed to multiple genres of music. He quickly found work singing song demos and commercial jingles for major corporations including McDonald's, Disneyland and was the singing narrator for Taco Bell's 'Run for the Border' television spots. Brown's title track I Wish That I Could Hurt That Way Again became a Top 10 hit and Hell or High Water and Don't Go to Strangers made it all the way to Number One on the charts. He wrote the multiple award winning song Water Into Wine that has been recorded by numerous artists, including Loretta Lynn.

Fortune began his career in 1982 with the Statler Brothers. He wrote the group's second Number One hit, Elizabeth, a song he later performed to Elizabeth Taylor at one of her birthday celebrations. He proceeded with two more Number One hits, My Only Love and Too Much On My Heart, and has had the rare opportunity to perform twice at the White House. Fortune started a solo career after the band's retirement in 2002. His first solo album was When One Door Closes and he has since released five other solo albums.
