GRAMMY-Nominated Southern Gospel Trio The Booth Brothers To Perform at Mill Town Music Hall

The rescheduled concert now set for Saturday, May 30

BREMEN, Ga. (March 27, 2020) – Recognized as a trio with a strong faith and a desire to create music that touches the soul, The Booth Brothers will take the Mill Town Music Hall stage on Saturday, May 30 at 7:30pm EST. The group believes its calling is more than singing, and they make an effort to minister to their audience during the shows. Opening the show will be the popular local group, The Diplomats Quartet. Mill Town Music Hall focuses on family-friendly music and events and is located conveniently off I-20 in Bremen (1031 Alabama Ave).

The Booth Brothers formed in the 1990s with brothers Ronnie and Michael along with their father Ron Booth Sr. After Ron Sr. retired, Jim Brady filled his role. When Jim left the group to start a trio with his family, Paul Lancaster stepped into the group. Among their countless awards include, Album of the Year, Song of the Year, Male Group of the Year and Trio of the Year, from organizations such as Southern Gospel Music Awards and National Quartet Convention.

The Singing News recognizes The Diplomats Quartet as one of the Southern Gospel's top groups. The group's style has been called upbeat and energetic. Jimmy and Rita Pearson, along with their son Corey, have led The Diplomats Quartet through the years.

Tickets for The Booth Brothers and the Diplomats are $33 for Premium Reserved seats and $28 for Reserved seats in advance. Fans are encouraged to purchase tickets through Ticket Alternative at 1-877-725-8849, online at the Mill Town Music Hall website (www.MillTownMusicHall.com) or the Mill Town Music Hall box office.
