'Pickup Man', Joe Diffie,
Will Be Forever Remembered at Mill Town Music Hall

March 30, 2020

BREMEN, Ga. (March 30, 2020) – The Mill Town Music Hall family is deeply saddened to learn that country music singer Joe Diffie passed away over the weekend of COVID-19. The 61-year old was scheduled to perform at Mill Town Music Hall on Nov. 21.

"Joe Diffie was a legend in country music, and we were so excited to host him at Mill Town Music Hall," said Steve Bennett, General Manager at Mill Town Music Hall. "May God comfort his family and friends during this difficult time."

As a reminder, Diffie had a string of hits in the 1990s with chart-topping ballads and singles like "Home" and "Pickup Man." The Tulsa-born singer was a Grand Ole Opry member for more than 25 years and was best known for his hits such as "Honky Tonk Attitude," "Prop Me Up Beside the Jukebox (If I Die)," "Bigger Than the Beatles" and "If the Devil Danced (In Empty Pockets)."

Diffie's music and vibrant personality will live on forever in the hearts of country music fans.
