Mill Town Music Hall Prepares to Reopen Safely for 22 Shows in 23 Weeks

*Unforgettable performances from legendary acts including
Mary Wilson of the Supremes, Marty Stuart and John Berry*

BREMEN, Ga. (June XX, 2020) – Mill Town Music Hall is excited to safely welcome back guests for a string of shows through the end of the year. Mill Town Music Hall will be featuring award-winning artists from multiple genres to take the stage and entertain fans at the intimate venue. Mill Town Music Hall focuses on family-friendly music and events and is located conveniently off I-20 in Bremen (1031 Alabama Avenue).

“Our entire Mill Town family is excited and thankful to welcome guests back into our home,” said Steve Bennett, Mill Town Music Hall General Manager. “As we welcome back our extended family, we are committed to continuing to do so in the safest way possible. We can’t wait to kick things off by having wide variety of award-winning artists at our venue with 22 shows in 23 weeks - there is literally a show for everyone’s music taste.”

Safety measures

Georgia Governor Brian Kemp recently issued new guidelines for live performance venues to reopen in a safe manner. Mill Town’s staff is working diligently to implement all recommendations and prepare for concerts in this new environment.

How Mill Town plans to approach the new normal:

- Protective Masks – The venue will have masks available for any guests that would like one, but wearing a mask will not be required.
- Facility Sanitization – The building will be thoroughly sanitized prior to each concert. In addition, certain high-traffic areas of the building will be cleaned throughout the events.
- Unwell Guests – Patrons who have been diagnosed with COVID-19, are experiencing symptoms of COVID-19 or have been exposed to someone with COVID-19 in the previous 14 days will not be admitted.
- Hand Sanitizing Stations – Stations will be available in several locations throughout the venue.
- Safe Distancing – Other reasonable precautions will be taken to provide safe distancing in common areas. However, the concert seating arrangement will remain as usual.
