The Show Must Go On! Mill Town Music Hall Hosting Live Streamed Concert to Entertain its Community

Three performances from Jim Wood Band, Cocomotion and Danny Dawson Band on May 14

BREMEN, Ga. (May 4, 2020) – Mill Town Music Hall invites fans to its first-ever live streamed concert on Thursday, May 14 at 7 pm EST. Featuring performances by the Jim Wood Band, Cocomotion, the Danny Dawson Band, the concert will be available for FREE on Facebook Live and other live streaming platforms. There will be other surprises throughout the concert to ensure a memorable evening. Mill Town Music Hall focuses on family-friendly music and events and is located conveniently off I-20 in Bremen (1031 Alabama Avenue).

“Mill Town Music Hall is treating this event like a normal concert,” said Steve Bennett, General Manager at Mill Town Music Hall. “We will have our full technical team onsite to ensure the very best in sound, lighting and video production, while still maintaining the proper social distancing requirements. We want fans to enjoy this concert from the comfort of their own homes, and we look forward to hosting them at the venue very soon.”

The Jim Wood Band, featuring members of the Georgia Mountain Fair Band, has previously opened for several concerts at the venue. They perform classic country and 50s/60s rock & roll hits. Cocomotion is comprised of Corey Pearson and members of the Diplomats’ band as well as a dynamic female vocalist. The group will perform classic rock, pop, and soul favorites. The Danny Dawson Band is one of the most requested opening acts at the venue, and they will perform traditional country music hit songs.

Bennett added, “This concert will have all of the elements that you would expect from a Mill Town Music Hall concert including announcements, an opening prayer and great music with professional production.”

Upcoming events at Mill Town Music Hall include Pam Tillis on June 13, Crystal Gayle on June 20, and Exile on June 27.
