Highly Acclaimed Songwriters and Singers T. Graham Brown and Jimmy Fortune Return to Mill Town Music Hall Stage

Artists return for their fourth combined appearance on March 7

BREMEN, Ga. (January 28, 2020) – Mill Town Music Hall is proud to welcome back CMA Award winner and Grammy nominee T. Graham Brown and Statler Brothers' legendary singer and songwriter Jimmy Fortune on Saturday, March 7 at 7:30 pm ET. This will be the fourth time they have appeared together at Mill Town. Mill Town Music Hall focuses on family-friendly music and events and is located conveniently off I-20 in Bremen (1031 Alabama Avenue).

A native to Georgia, Brown began his music career at the University of Georgia where he was exposed to multiple genres of music. He quickly found work singing song demos and commercial jingles for major corporations including McDonald's, Disneyland and was the singing narrator for Taco Bell's 'Run for the Border' television spots. Brown's title track "I Wish That I Could Hurt That Way Again" became a Top 10 hit and "Hell or High Water" and "Don't Go to Strangers" made it all the way to Number One on the charts. He wrote the multiple award winning song "Wine Into Water" that has been recorded by numerous artists, including Loretta Lynn.

Fortune began his career in 1982 with the Statler Brothers. He wrote the group's second Number One hit, "Elizabeth," a song he later performed to Elizabeth Taylor at one of her birthday celebrations. He proceeded with two more Number One hits, "My Only Love" and "Too Much on My Heart," and has had the rare opportunity to perform twice at the White House. Fortune started a solo career after the band's retirement in 2002. His first solo album was When One Door Closes, and he has since released five other solo albums.

Tickets for T. Graham Brown and Jimmy Fortune are $38 for "Premium Reserved" and $33 for "Reserved" in advance.
